

PUBLICOPINION

Solid and Professional

10/2019

ISSN 2083-1714

CONTENTS

Final evaluation of the government of Mateusz Morawiecki

Trade unions: membership and evaluation of activities

Violation of employee rights

Attitude to death and funeral customs

IN ADDITION

TO THE REPORTS REFERRED TO ABOVE, THE FOLLOWING HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED RECENTLY (IN POLISH):

- Trust in Politicians Three Weeks before Parliamentary Elections
- Attitude to Government in September
- School Students Summer Vacation in 2019
- Social Moods in September
- Interest in Parliamentary Elections, Voting Confidence and Electoral Alternatives
- Electorates 2019 Views' Characteristics
- Who Should Win and Who Will Win October Elections
- Political Party Preferences a Week before the Elections
- Socio-economic Situation of Older People
- Opinions about Parliament and President
- Social Moods in the Last Quarter
- Social Moods in October
- Attitude to Government in October
- Trust in Politicians in October
- Parents' Spending on Education of Children in School Year 2019/2020

Final evaluation of the government of Mateusz Morawiecki

After nearly two years of operation, the government of Mateusz Morawiecki has retained relatively good ratings. His achievements in various spheres are assessed similarly to the achievements of Beata Szydło's cabinet and better than the actions of previous governments since the second half of the 1990s. The activity of the government of Mateusz Morawiecki in the field of family policy is definitely best perceived: one-fifth (20%) give the highest possible rating, and a further 38% think that this activity has been good. In total, therefore, more than half of Poles (58%) perceive the family policy of the current government well. Actions in the area of combating crime, as well as defence and state security are almost equally well assessed, as 51% and 50% of Poles, respectively, perceive the

How would you assess the activities of the government of Prime Minister Mateusz Morawiecki since its formation in the field of:

Average grades

					(%)	on a scale of 2-5
family policy	20	3	8	19	11 12	3,81
fighting crime and ensuring the security of citizens	14	37		25	11 13	3,64
national defence and security	14	36		22	12 16	3,66
economy	15	33		32	11 9	3,61
fight against corruption	15	30	2	1 1	6 18	3,57 leadership of the state	14	31	2	27	19 9	3,51
care for people who need help	13	28	22	2	?5 12	3,34
proper management of public money	15	24	20	2	9 12	3,34
environmental protection	9	29	25	2	3 14	3,28
agricultural policy	9	28	27	13	23	3,44
foreign policy	11	25	25	21	18	3,38
education	8	26	23	3′	1 12	3,16
health care	5 1	7 3	3	3	8 7	2,89

■Very good (5) Good (4) Satisfactory (3) Unsatisfactory (2) Don't know government's activities in these areas well. Next in ranking is cabinet's evaluation in the area of the economy. Almost half (48%) assess it well. Slightly fewer (45%) respondents consider government's efforts to combat corruption well. The same proportion positively assess its management of the state (45% of respondents perceive the current government's activities in this area as good or very good). Roughly two-fifths give the government positive notes for care for people in need (41% very good or good vs. 25% unsatisfactory), public money management (39% vs. 29%) and environmental protection (38% vs. 23%). Slightly fewer people appreciate the agricultural policy (37% very good or good vs. 13% unsatisfactory) and foreign policy of the government (36% vs. 21%). The government of Mateusz Morawiecki is worst evaluated in the field of education and health care. Most commonly, unsatisfactory or satisfactory grades are indicated for these areas.

More information about this topic can be found in CBOS report in Polish: "Detailed Government Ratings at the End of the Term", 2019. Fieldwork for national sample: September 2019, N=936. The random address sample is representative for adult population of Poland.